DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's election of Species I, figures 1-6 readable on claims 1, 4-6, and 10-20 without traverse is noted on 10/05/06. Claims 3 and 7-9 are withdrawn.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1, 4, 5, 6, 10, 12, 13, 14, 17, 18, 19, and 20 are ejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 4, 5, 6, 10, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, and 18 of U.S. Patent No. 7,147,569. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other. Both claim similar putter-type club head structures that have a column, a peripheral mass, aperture, size, volume and densities.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 15 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 15 does not appear to be independent claim. Is the claim to depend on claim 14?

Claim 10-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. the last sentence of claim 10 discloses a peripheral mass of the belt as 2.5 inches to 4.5 inches. This appears to be the length not the mass. Do you mean to use the gram unit?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 14, 15, 16, and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Galy (US Patent No. 5,971,867).

Art Unit: 3711

Galy discloses a putter club head (1) as claimed including a peripheral mass belt (8, 19, 32) and central aperture through the club head body having a heel and toe opening (see the inside cavity as shown on Figs. 1-4). Regarding the column portion, the screws 25, 26, 27, and 28 are considered as column.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 4-6, 10-14, and 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Galy in view of Hocknell et al. (US Patent Application No. 2002/0094884).

Galy discloses the invention as recited above but fails to explicitly state the claimed width of the face portion, the center of gravity location, the mass, volume, and density of the peripheral belt. Hocknell in paragraphs 100+ discloses the face to be 4-7.5 square inches, the mass of the head to be 165-225 grams. For center of gravity location see paragraph 104+ of the Hocknell reference. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide any material, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice.
